POLITICAL RIGHT

Dr. Shaw Said She'd Be for Suffrage If the Women Wrong.

U. S. GOVERNS RIGHTS

Mrs. White Contends Women Should Not Vote Because They Are Home-Makers.

By MRS, GEORGE P. WHITE. laiming of the Organizing Committee, Primaricalia Association Organization Woman Suffrage.

'I would be for suffrage for my sex if very woman voted wrong." This, of ourse, is the attitude of your average votes for women" enthusiast, but, more-over, it is the latest unnounced belief of the Anna Howard Shaw, the president of the National American Woman Suf-trage Association. Of course, it is quite likely that last week was not the first time Dr. Snaw made this candid declara-has gotten it.

Dr. Shaw believes that women have an "unallenable right" to vote, no matter what happens, and consequently, she is for the exercise of the so-called right. even "if every woman voted wrong," or in other words, against the principles of good government and morality.

"What le a Right?"

Dr. Shaw, however, seems to be hope-essly wrong about her "rights" of women to vote-right or wrong. Her epigram, considered superficially, is such a during assertion that at first sight we are apt o overlook the fact that when analyzed, r plea is most convincingly answered itself. First, what is a "right" The lictionary is illuminating on this point. That which is true, just, straight, not erroneous or wrong, in accordance with duty, equitable. In social and political ffairs, that is right which is consonant ith the laws and customs of a country right in any valuable sense can only that which the law secures to its ossessor by requiring others to respect and abstain from its violation." An "unalicnable right," then, must not only be all these in reference to being just, equitable, etc. but it must, in addition, be a right that cashot be "conveyed, sold, or made over to another." I abappily, this "unallenable right" claim innappity, this "initiative right claims among the applied to the exercise of the franchise by the wildest flichts of feminist imagination. Our "rights" in "social and political affairs," must be "consonant with the laws and customs of a country."
